The full list of countries per region is available in Appendix B: Countries & Age. Players qualify and advance to the Regional Finals through Open Qualifiers.

3.1 Open Qualifiers

Registration

All players are eligible to participate in Open Qualifiers tournaments.

Tournament Format Details

- Mode: 1on1
- Seeding: random
- First to 2 wins
- Tournament system: Double Elimination (if there is no more than 256 participants) or Swiss* (if there is more than 256 participants)

If the Swiss system is used the settings are as follows:

- Number of rounds: 8
- Elimination after 2 losses

There will be 2 Open Qualifiers per region:

- 2x Europe
- 2x North America
- 2x South America
- 2x APAC North

The TOP4 of each qualifier will be invited to the Regional Finals!

*Swiss is a cup system where you won't get kicked out of a Swiss cup after your first loss, you will stay in the Swiss cup until a certain loss-threshold has been reached or the cup has finished. Every Swiss cup has a fixed amount of rounds. In every round you will be matched against opponents of your skill group, based on the current player score (for example, players who have a 1-1 score face others with the same score). A ranking will be shown at the end of the cup based on the points of every contestant's performance.

Ranking and tiebreaker system

Final position in the ranking will be determined by the number of wins, or if equal than determined - by tiebreakers. Tiebreaker system takes three values into account which are described below.

- Tiebreaker 1 (Buchholz system): represents the sum of the opponent wins.
- Tiebreaker 2 (W/L Sum): represents the performance of opponents that a player played during the tournament. Players who played against stronger opponents will be ranked higher within the standings of the tournament. To calculate this value, sum the number of points each opponent contributes. Opponents contribute +1 for each win they accumulate throughout the tournament and -1 for each loss they accumulate throughout the tournament. Each single opponent may never contribute less than -3 points to a player's first tiebreaker. Default wins contribute 0 points to the player's W/L Sum tiebreaker.
- Tiebreaker 3 (First Tiebreaker Sum): represents the performance of the opponents that all of a player's opponents played. Players who played against opponents who consistently played against stronger opponents throughout the Tournament will be ranked higher within the standings of the tournament. To calculate this value, total the sum of W/L Sum for all opponents that the player played. Default wins contribute 0 points to the player's Second Tiebreaker Sum tiebreaker.

3.2 Finals

Registration

For the Broadcasted Finals, players will be able to see their invitation via email. Invited players need to confirm participation with admin via email within 24 hours and perform a Discord check-in the day prior to competition. During the Discord check-in players will need to provide a "PS4 connection status" screenshot showing their bandwidth capabilities in order to guarantee the quality and stability of the stream during the tournament.

Tournament Format Details

- Mode: 1on1

- Player seeding: position is taken from the player's best qualification result in the open qualifiers. In case a player has played more than 1 open qualifier, his best position will prevail.
- Tournament system: Double Elimination, First to 3 wins

3.3 Match Rules

Match start time

All matches of the tournament must be played as soon as both players are added to the match. Both players have 10 minutes to enter the game and join their match.

To keep the delay during the cup as low as possible we reserve the right to disqualify players from the tournament. This will only be done in cases where a player shows no real effort to get a match done or is even obviously stalling. In severe cases, this can even affect both players.

To prevent delaying the SWISS rounds, every match must be played in the period of 30 minutes. If the match takes longer than the period of time the match will be cut and a draw will be given. Any abuse of this rule is considered to be deception and will result in punishment, up to and including disqualification of the Player.
