3.8 How to play

- Access the match event page (you will be able to see it in the my events tab)
- Click "Join Now" option

- MLB The Show 20 will start and you will be automatically matched with your opponent
- Play the match
- The result (win/loss) will be automatically submitted at the end of the match
- If any bug/problem is found, please contact support directly from the match event page
- As soon as the Competition starts, you will build up your team that will stay the same for the rest of the Competition. The following players restrictions will be enforced by the MLB The Show 20 game integration:
  - 2 Diamond players
  - 3 Gold players
  - 9 Silver players
  - 9 Bronze players
  - 2 Common players

In case the Competition needs to be played without the use of the MLB The Show 20 game integration the same limitations need to be honored. Players cannot exceed this number of players on their Competition's team, otherwise they can be disqualified.

Results are automatically submitted by the system at the end of the match.

In case the match is played manually without using the automatic game integration (just when an admin allows it) both Players are responsible for entering the correct results in one of the following manners:

1. On the ESL website
2. Through the Tournament App on the PS4

If the match is played without the automatic game integration, both Players are responsible for uploading screenshots of the game results at the end of the game. The screenshots must include the nicknames of both Players and the score. If a Player enters a defeat for himself, the match is automatically closed and scored. The result can then no longer be corrected. Entering a result while a match is in progress disqualifies the Player.

If you have a conflict in the game, please open a protest so that an admin can review the case and make a decision. The decision may also mean that both Players will be disqualified if there is insufficient evidence that either Player is the clear winner.

3.9 Protests

- If any issues are encountered in an Open Qualifier match, it's the Players' responsibility to create a protest and reach out to the admin team.
- In order to create a protest, go to the Open Qualifier match page in your PS4 ("Events" > "My Events" > Choose the Open Qualifier match for which you need assistance) and select the option "Go to Support Page".
- Players are responsible for providing proof of Open Qualifier match results in case of protests. This can be done with screenshots of each victory or video replays uploaded to websites such as YouTube or Twitch.

- For the Grand Final there are different rules, as set forth in Section 3.3.4 (Match Disputes).

3.10 Match media

All game media (screenshots and videos) must be kept by the Players for at least 15 days. Simulating or manipulating the game media is forbidden and will be punished.

3.11 Match Settings

The following configuration shall be the settings for each match:

- Mode: Diamond Dynasty
- Hitting: Hall of Fame
- Pitching: Hall of Fame
- Guess Pitch: OFF
- Quick Counts: OFF
- Strike Zone: ON
- Hot Zone: OFF
- Balks: OFF
- Umpire Balls & Strikes: Standard
- Ejections: OFF
- Injuries: OFF
- Presentation mode: 1

If any match has to be played without using automatic game integration, then the match must be played with the foregoing match settings.

All completed matches are presumed to have been played with the correct match settings and cannot be protested on account of any incorrect match settings. If any match setting is incorrect then the Player must protest such incorrect match settings at the beginning of the match.

3.12 Match Rules

3.12.1 Disqualification

As soon as both Players are being shown in a match, the match should be started as soon as possible. Intentional delay of the match may result in disqualification of the Player. If a Player does not show within 10 minutes of an Open Qualifier match, the unresponsive Player is disqualified and the Player that is waiting must create a Protest Ticket (which is available in the match event page) to receive a default win for the match.

If there is no result or comment after the round time has expired, no opponent has been reported as not present or a protest ticket has been opened, the Tournament Organizer has the right to disqualify Players from a Cup.

In case the match must be played manually (whenever an administrator allows it) Players who have set their PSN settings so that they cannot be added as friends or receive messages will be excluded from the Competition in order to ensure that the Competition runs smoothly.

3.12.2 Technical Issues

Players are responsible for their own technical problems (Hardware/Internet).

Matches are not postponed due to such problems and must be played.
